Every priest goes to work at the altar each day, offers the same old sacrifices year in, year out, and never makes a dent in the sin problem. As a priest, Christ made a single sacrifice for sins, and that was it! Then he sat down right beside God and waited for his enemies to cave in. It was a perfect sacrifice by a perfect person to perfect some very imperfect people. By that single offering, he did everything that needed to be done for everyone who takes part in the purifying process. The Holy Spirit confirms this:

This new plan I'm making with Israel isn't going to be written on paper, isn't going to be chiselled in stone; This time "I'm writing out the plan in them, carving it on the lining of their hearts." He concludes, I'll forever wipe the slate clean of their sins. Once sins are taken care of for good, there's no longer any need to offer sacrifices for them. Hebrews 10:11-18 The Message

VERSES OF THE WEEK: Therefore when Christ came into the world, he said: "Sacrifice and offering you did not desire, but a body you prepared for me: with burnt offerings and sin offerings you were not pleased. Then I said, "Here I am . It is written about me in the scroll. I have come to do your will, O God." Heb.10:5-7

There were two sessions, with over 500 ladies attending each, and some wonderful worship. Jennifer Rees Larcombe, a well know author and bible teacher gave a very inspirational address at both. Rev. Jacki was been invited to read the Scriptures at both sessions and also met up with Rev. Uel Marrs who is the head of the Board of Overseas Mission and responsible for our minister's sponsorship, for a very productive time of conversation. Many thanks for all who covered last Sunday and to Chris Hayes who was our speaker.

PEACE SHALÔM

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be fearful." Jn 14:27

Like many Hebrew words, the word we commonly translate as peace, shalom, has a wider latitude of meaning than the English word. We tend to understand it as the absence of war or as calmness of spirit. But along with these ideas, the Hebrew word shalom also carries a greater connotation of well-being, health, safety, prosperity, wholeness, and completeness.

In the Aaronic benediction, when it is said "May the Lord look upon you with favour and give you his peace," it is a much broader, wider blessing that we may think, talking about God supplying our physical and material needs as well as our emotional needs. Knowing these broader meanings helps in our Bible study. For instance, God says to Abraham, "As for you, you shall go to your fathers in shalom; you will be buried at a good old age." (Genesis. 15:15) It doesn't just mean that Abraham will not be at war, or even that he will have a calm spirit, but also that his life would end in well-being and completeness.

One important concept that has to do with shalom, peace, is that it also speaks about having a covenantal relationship with God. When the covenant was first enacted between God and Israel, some of the sacrifices were peace (shelem) offerings, to celebrate the relationship between the people and God. This is the Hebraic understanding of salvation, not just that we will go to heaven when we die, but that we have an unbroken, loving relationship with God here on earth.

Most sacrificial offerings were given entirely to God, but the peace (or fellowship) offering was different. Part of it is eaten by the worshipper, as if he is sharing a meal with God, the ultimate picture of friendship. The Passover meal was a type of peace offering, because it was a sacrifice that the people ate from.

When Jesus held up the bread and wine as a new covenant, he was using this as a peace offering to show their new relationship with God. Through atonement by his blood, God offers all of us shalom, in all the many senses of that word.
